LINCOLN WAY IS KILLED 153-31

Washington to Gettysburg Memorial Highway Idea now a Thing of the Past. Greek Temple Idea is the Winner.

Following a day of fervid oratory, during which the South joined the North in paying tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, the House on Wednesday approved the erection of a Greek temple on the banks of the Potomac river, at Washington, as a monument to the war president. The memorial will cost $2,000,000.

Only one test vote was taken on the Lincoln memorial project and that stood 153 to 31 in favor of the Greek temple plan.

The advocates of a Washington-Gettysburg highway, passing through Maryland, which was proposed by the good roads forces in the House, were completely routed.

The highway advocates then gave up the fight and the Lincoln Memorial bill as adopted by the Senate and approved by the Lincoln Memorial Commission was adopted without a recorded vote. A storm of applause greeted the result, in which Southern Congressmen joined with their Northern friends across the aisle.

When the fight opened, the highway forces admitted their cause was lost. Many advocates of good roads, realizing this, switched over to the Greek temple project. They did not wish to imperil their good roads measures when they came up in the House by fighting a losing battle against the Greek temple plan.

The Lincoln Memorial bill will now go to President Taft for his signature. He has already verbally approved the measure in discussing it with members of the House.

The Lincoln Memorial bill had to run a gauntlet of amendments before final action was taken on it. Representative Stephens, of Texas offered as a substitute a provision calling for the erection of a magnificent auditorium in Washington in place of the Greek temple; Representative Sims, of Tennessee, proposed the erection of a monument on Sixteenth street, near U street, and Representative Borland, of Missouri, suggested the memorial highway plan. All the amendments fell before a point of order and no vote was taken on them.

Nearly a score of Congressmen discussed the project. The Greek temple plan had as many advocates from the South as from the North; the highway plan had as its champions men from all corners of the compass. Discussion in its favor was led by General Sherwood, of Ohio; Representative Borland, of Missouri, and Representative Talbott, of Maryland. The most effective speeches for the Greek temple were made by Representatives McCall, of Massachusetts, and Ollie M. James, of Kentucky.

Mr. McCall suggested that if Congress was determined to build a highway it should be constructed from Washington to Richmond, the capitals of the North and the South during the Civil War. Mr. James declared that if a highway is to be accepted its route should be from the birthplace of Lincoln in Kentucky to Springfield, Ill., where Lincoln made his home.

Representative Talbott acted as the spokesman of the Maryland delegation, which was lined up for the highway plan. There was a vein of good humor running through his address.

TELL US HOW TO CONDUCT PAPER

Lessons in Running a Daily Newspaper Given The Times by Pupils of the High School. Want Editorials. Some Suggestions.

Some weeks ago The Gettysburg Times extended to the pupils of the High School an invitation to give their ideas of how the paper should be conducted and, as a special incentive to careful thought and good work, offered a first prize of $10 and a second prize of $5 to those writing the best essays on the subject "What should a Small Town Daily Newspaper Contain?"

The offer was accepted by the School Board, with the understanding that the judges in the contest should select several in addition to the best two and that then all those named by these judges should give their essays as orations when further competition would take place and the best speakers be given the prizes. The judges, Mrs. S. M. Stewart, George P. Black and Prof. Albert Billheimer, have completed their task of going through the large pile of essays and have selected as the best five the papers of the following, Helen Musselman, Nellie Ramer, Alma Kittinger, Mae Belle Little and Carrie Miller.

All the pupils of the High School entered into the contest with eagerness and earnestness with the result that many different ideas were brought out, a number of them unusual and unique, while many of them were unanimous in asking for several things.

An editorial column was demanded by some while almost all of the youthful essayists recommended it. Others wanted the railroad schedules published and the weather report was desirable, thought many. One pupil made the suggestion that the schedules and weather report should appear side by side so that those wishing to take a journey could make their plans according to the weather prospects.

The publication of sensational news was decried generally and one in commenting upon this idea said: "If there should be bold robberies or horrible murders to speak of, I should not publish all the details, as the excitement of reading them might kindle an evil fire that has been smoldering, for many years, in the mind of some one and cause them to do something terrible."

Another says: "Drunkness, carousals, thefts and murders are of interest to us all, yet for the influence they have upon young minds it would be better if they were omitted. But in a small town like this it is hard to print a newspaper without mentioning them for they are common occurrences."

The following are paragraphs from some of the essays: "The aged men and women enjoy reading current happenings and like to remark that 'the world now is not what it used to be.'"

"A man coming from a city, or a town of this size, to Gettysburg makes this remark at first sight of our daily newspaper, 'Why, what a cheap grade of paper your printers use! Can't they afford any better?'"

"The little four page sheet is always ridiculed by some, but always held dear to the heart of the native. Its arrival is watched for with more zeal and its contents devoured with more activity than its more elaborate city competitor."

"The editor who does not allow liquor to be advertised in his paper is indeed very nice."

"A paper cannot degrade itself more than when it contains sarcastic remarks about anyone. Feelings can be hurt very much this way and lots of times is the cause of a person's dislike for the town or its inhabitants."

"A newspaper should contain all kinds of advertisements because it is through this column that things are able to be sold, a poor man is able to get a job, and also many things that are lost are found through this column."

"In a small town a paper should be neutral on politics and not side with either party. If it would I think it would lose trade. The opposing party would always be trying to do it."

"To my estimation the most important page is the sporting page."

"Public sales are another important item to have in the paper and a sale is not really advertised unless it is advertised in a daily newspaper."

"Short stories, jokes and poetry are necessary to make a newspaper complete."

"If, in a small town, a prominent citizen should disgrace himself nothing could be printed by the newspaper about it, because public sentiment would object."

The date on which the five young ladies will "speak" their essays will be announced later.

MUST IGNORE SICKLES' WORK

Civil War Valor may not be Taken into Account in his Present Difficulties. Letter to Mrs. Longstreet on the Subject.

The fame of General Daniel E. Sickles as a soldier should not deter New York State in its efforts to collect the $23,476 unaccounted for by the General as chairman of the New York Monuments Commission. This is the view advanced by Attorney-General Carmody in a letter to Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet, of Gainesville, Ga., widow of the Confederate general.

In a telegram to Attorney-General Carmody, Mrs. Longstreet offered to raise $23,476 from "the ragged and maimed followers of Lee." Attorney-General Carmody's letter says:

"Your sympathetic and patriotic expressions do justice to your heart, but they do violence to the facts in this case. General Sickles is being prosecuted by the State of New York for converting to his own use the sum of $23,476. This money came into his hands as chairman of the State Monuments Commission, to be used, among other purposes, for the erection of monuments to mark the resting places on the field of Gettysburg of the brave soldiers who fell in defense of their country and to provide for a celebration upon the field of Gettysburg in which those living might participate, at the state's expense, in a fitting manner."

"General Sickles appropriated this amount to his own use. This he has not attempted to justify or defend, admitting that he took the state's money for private use without authority of law, an act which, under our laws and under the laws of all civilized governments, means stealing. He gave his own time to repay this amount, and that time was extended at his suggestion, without any desire to embarrass him, and with the full appreciation of the claim which he has upon this nation for the great services he rendered in the rebellion. These services cannot be overestimated, but even the fame of the soldier must not be used as a cloak or protection for the commission of crime, and it is nothing less than misdirected sympathy to undertake to so confuse the question involved as to make an ordinary prosecution for a crime seem like persecution and to elevate as a martyr a person who confesses his dereliction."

"New York State appreciates her heroes and feels humiliated at the spectacle which this case presents. New York State also respects her laws and seeks to enforce them in a spirit of equality to all."

"I trust this brief statement of the facts will show you how erroneous have been your views, how misplaced your sympathy and how misdirected your criticism."

GROOM LOSES TEETH

But Despite Wounds Led Bride to Altar the Following Morning.

Thomas Lawrence, son of Mrs. Christian Lawrence, of near Centennial, while hooking up a horse on Monday evening, was kicked by the animal, resulting in a severe laceration of the right side of his face and the loss of three teeth. He was taken to the office of Dr. A. C. Rice, McSherrystown, who dressed the wounds, while Dr. T. H. Charnbury, of Hanover, removed the broken teeth. The painful accident came at a very inopportune time, as his wedding took place the following day. Despite his injuries, on Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock he led Miss Alverta Todd to the altar in Conewago Chapel, and was married at a nuptial mass, Rev. Germanus Kohl officiating.

COOK—SHARRAH

FOOLED GUESTS

Bride and Groom Fool Wedding Guests by Clever Scheme.

The guests at the Keppel-Hamilton wedding were completely fooled on the going away of the bride and groom Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Keppel left the scene of the wedding by a cab shortly after five o'clock and started through the National Cemetery, evidently intending to take a roundabout way to the Western Maryland station. Instead, they went only as far as the Soldiers' monument where they got out and walked back through the Citizens' Cemetery. Meanwhile the guests were hurrying to the station and spent many minutes there waiting. Finally the cab came along with another party in it and the guests returned completely mystified. They were told that Mr. and Mrs. Keppel had taken an automobile and it was some time before the truth was discovered. Mrs. Hamilton, the mother of the bride, is ill with a severe cold and the wedding trip has been postponed several days on that account.

WHERLEY—GOCHENOUR

Lloyd A. Wherley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wherley, of Littlestown, and Miss Cora E. Gochenour, of near East Berlin, were married at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, January 28th, in St. Vincent's rectory, by Rev. Joseph Murphy. The young couple were attended by Miss Mary E. Fink, of McSherrystown, and Edward Noel, of Square Corner. Mr. and Mrs. Wherley will reside for the present with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Felix, in Hanover. The groom is employed at the Long table works.

FREE WEDDING offer by the Citizens' Band of Gettysburg: The Citizens' Band of Gettysburg will give the following gifts to any couple who will get married publicly on the stage at the band fair, on Saturday night February 1, 1913, between 10.30 and 11.00 o'clock: $5.00 parlor lamp, 2 pieces of parlor furniture, $5.00 worth of Wear-ever aluminum cooking utensils, $5.00 worth of drug supplies, solid gold wedding ring, table linen, 1 pair blankets, 1 piece of silverware, 1 pair Star Brand shoes. 31 SUFFRAGETTES SENT TO JAIL

Militant Females Guests of London For Fortnight

DECLARE HUNGER STRIKE

War to the Knife," Shrieks "General" Drummond When Sentenced to Fourteen Days.

London, Jan. 30.—"General" Mrs. Drummond and thirty other militant suffragettes will spend the next fourteen days in jail as the result of their determination to force David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, to receive them as a delegation in the house of commons.

The thirty-one declared a hunger strike as soon as they were placed behind the bars.

"We will die for votes," screamed Mrs. Drummond. "We will be martyrs for a cause."

The favorite nickname given to the militant suffragettes in London is "Bashibazoukesses." London smiles at this, because the Bashibazouk, who is an irregular Turkish soldier, is noted for his lawlessness and depravity.

The accused women were brought up at the Bow street police court before Robert Marsham, magistrate, and the same sentence was imposed on all of them. Mrs. Drummond complained that the police had handled her roughly when she was arrested. She declared the patrolman had thrown her in the mud.

"It is now war to the knife," she told the magistrate. "You and Mr. Lloyd-George have a lot of trouble ahead of you. You will have to do the dirty work and you will have plenty of it."

The women all refused the option which was offered them of paying a fine instead of going to prison.

When Miss Sylvia Pankhurst did not appear in court with Mrs. Drummond it was learned that she had been released on her own recognizance, promising good behavior pending her trial. Miss Christabel Pankhurst, believed to be still in London, is being sought high and low by Scotland Yard detectives.

Friends of the arrested women, claiming that they would choose prison rather than pay fines, had brought them grips filled with clothing and toilet accessories and boxes of books. So the corridors of Bow street court looked like a railway platform on excursion day.

"This is only the beginning," said one woman. "Thousands will take up our work."

Two women, who refused to give their names, were sent to prison for one month for breaking windows in the home office. They preferred prison to paying $25 fines and like "General" Drummond's cohorts they declared a hunger strike.

Throughout the day every police station was kept busy with continuous letter box outrages in every quarter of London, and policemen made several arrests, but were unable to catch any box raiders redhanded. Paint, ink and acids were dropped into the letter boxes.

Oxford and Regent streets presented a novel appearance with their shop windows shattered and boarded up. Following the wholesale window smashings, nearly every shopkeeper had his windows protected.

PICK WAY OUT OF JAIL

Six Prisoners Dig Hole Through Wall and Escape.

Cape Charles, Va., Jan. 30.—Six prisoners lodged in the Eastville jail made their escape by picking a hole through the prison wall with an iron bar.

The sheriff was immediately notified, but the prisoners had made a getaway before their flight could be intercepted.

The fugitives are Major Dalby and Linwood Smith, implicated in a shooting case in Eastville; Benjamin Watson, charged with the illicit sale of liquor; Thomas Richardson, larceny, and two others whose names could not be ascertained. All are colored.

Unpaid Dues and a Strike.

Shamokin, Pa., Jan. 30.—Employees of the Enterprise colliery and men engaged at other operations organized a local and resolved not to work with men who do not pay their dues to the United Mine Workers. Workmen will be asked to produce their working cards to show whether dues are paid in full, and if not the company officials will be asked to discharge the delinquents. If the request is not observed it is feared a strike will result.

Many Clubs Want Thorpe.

Philadelphia, Jan. 30.—Jim Thorpe's announcement that he expects to play professional ball has started a scramble for his services. Several major league clubs have announced that they have or are willing to make him an offer. Among these are both New York clubs, the Cincinnati Reds, the Chicago Americans and the St. Louis Americans.

$500,000 Fire in Newark.

Newark, N. J., Jan. 30.—Fire, which for a time threatened the entire business section of the city, caused a loss of about $500,000. The fire started in the warehouse of Edward Kirsch & Co.

SAULSBURY ELECTED DELAWARE SENATOR

Democrat Breaks the Deadlock in Legislature.

Dover, Del., Jan. 30.—Willard Saulsbury, Democratic national committee man from this state, was elected to the United States senate, when the deadlock broke and he received a majority of the votes of the legislators meeting in joint session.

The surrender of the anti-Saulsbury men came on the ninth ballot. It was the result of a conference held by Senator Williams and Representatives Cummins, Houston and Schneider, the four Democrats who had refused to support the caucus nominee.

In this conference all the recalcitrants except Williams yielded to the pressure brought to bear by party leaders and agreed to vote for Saulsbury.

The vote was as follows: Willard Saulsbury, Democrat, 28; Republicans Senator Harry A. Richardson, 11; Alfred I. Dupont, 3; former Governor S. S. Pennewell, 1; Ruby R. Vall, 1, and Alexander P. Corbit, 1.

W. H. Thompson New Kansas Senator.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 30.—William H. Thompson, a Democrat, was elected United States senator to succeed Charles Curtis by the Kansas legislature in session here.

Jeff Davis' Successor Chosen.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 30.—Joseph T. Robinson, Democrat, was elected United States senator to succeed the late Jeff Davis.

FALLS 18 STORIES TO DEATH

New York Lawyer Drops From His Office Window.

New York, Jan. 30.—Morris H. Beall, a lawyer, sat on the window sill of his office and glanced down eighteen stories to the roof of the skyscraper boiler house below.

A moment later he was swaying on his narrow seat. Then he somersaulted down and lay crumpled up a dozen stories from a young woman at a telephone booth called up by police.

The girl calmly called up police and told them. Beall was dead when picked up. From papers in his office it was learned he was a native of Omaha, and had been a member of the class of '94 at Yale.

MAD DOG BY PARCEL POST

Body of Infected Animal Shipped Through the Mail.

Berkeley, Cal., Jan. 30.—Done up in a neat brown package, the body of a mad dog arrived here by parcel post.

"Mad" it was labeled, and so it turned out to be after the bundle had been examined by Dr. W. A. Sawyer of the state hygienic laboratory. The package was sent from Floriston, Cal., where the dog had been shot.

Indiana Wins Corn Growing Contest.

Columbus, S. C., Jan. 30.—At the National Corn Exhibition Charles Short of Greensburg, Ind., received the Indiana grand sweepstakes trophy cup for growing the best ears of corn. The cup offered by the Indiana Corn Growers' association is valued at $1000. This is the fifth time Indiana has taken the cup.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The Page vocational education bill, authorizing maximum appropriations of more than $14,000,000 for agricultural and trade educational work, was adopted by the senate as a substitute for the Lever Smith bill, which has passed the house.

Headache Powder Fatal.

Racine, Wis., Jan. 30.—An excessive quantity of coal tar contained in consecutive doses of headache powder taken by Mrs. Bertha Brehm, aged thirty-three years, caused her death.

CONSTITUTION BILLS IN HOUSE

Provides For Convention and Board to Suggest Changes.

WANT TO ADJOURN APRIL 15

Bill at Harrisburg Proposes to License Sale of Cigarettes or Paper to Make Them—Other Bills Presented.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—Bills to ascertain the sentiment of the people in regard to changes in the constitution were presented to the house by John R. K. Scott, of Philadelphia.

These bills were prepared by the Republican state convention legislative committee.

One provides for submission of the question of a constitutional convention to the people and election of delegates in November, the convention to consist of 165 delegates, fifteen to be elected at large.

The second regulates elections on the question of holding a constitutional convention, and the third provides for appointment by the governor of a commission of nine to ascertain what sections of the constitution need amendment and report to the convention, if authorized, and to the legislature, if none be authorized.

A bill proposing a state system of licensure for the sale of cigarettes or cigarette paper was introduced in the house by Matthew Bedford. In first class cities the license shall be $100; second class, $75; third class, $50; boroughs, $25; first class townships, $15; second class, $10.

The bill would make it unlawful for wholesalers to sell to any except licensed retailers. The penalty provided for violations of the act is a fine of not over $100.

The first step to fix a date for adjournment was taken by Mr. Kitts, of Erie, who offered a resolution that the legislature of 1913 adjourn on April 15. It is possible that an effort will be made to amend it to read April 25.

Among the bills presented were the following:

Mr. Rockwell, of Tioga, making the deer season Dec. 1 to 19; also a pure paint bill.

Mr. Rothenberger, of Berks, requiring suburban trolley cars to be equipped with toilets.

Among the bills reported out were those prohibiting publication of misleading advertisements, regulating fire escapes in theaters and for an additional judge in Cambria county.

Declaring that Pittsburgh should have an elective school board instead of one appointed by the courts, Representative A. C. Stein, of that city, introduced several bills calling for amendments to the school code that would affect Philadelphia also.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh are in the first school district under the code provisions. The bills call for amendments that have to do with taxation for school purposes, but they are only opening wedges, he declares, for a series of bills, the purpose of which is to obtain an elective board for Pittsburgh.

A bill was also presented calling for an appropriation of $7500 for the proposed board of censors, to have jurisdiction over moving picture shows. The board was created at the last session, but no appropriation was made. The governor in his message asked for an appropriation so that the censors could be appointed.

SAYS U. S. LOST $150,000,000

Idle Funds Since 1886 Would Have Earned Big Sum.

Washington, Jan. 30.—A loss of $150,000,000 which the government might have received in interest on idle funds in the treasury since 1905, and a much greater loss on funds deposited with out interest in national banks, will be described in a report soon to be made to the house favoring the adoption of the Goeke bill for a compulsory deposit law.

The report of the committee on expenditures is expected to show that under a 2 per cent interest law the government would have earned nearly $150,000,000 since 1886 on idle funds in the treasury and money deposited in national banks.

Big Norristown School Burned.

Norristown, Pa., Jan. 30.—Fire destroyed the big school building in Noble street, this place, causing a loss of fully $50,000. One fireman was injured by broken glass, his hand being nearly severed, and another was overcome by smoke. Fortunately the flames were discovered during the lunch hour, which prevented what might have been a heavy loss of life among the 400 pupils who attended session in the building. The flames started in the basement.

One Man Causes Strike.

Williamstown, Pa., Jan. 30.—Close to 1300 men are idle at the colliery here because of the refusal of one man to join an organization. Thirty-nine men were reported last week as declining to become members. Since that time all but one have been enrolled. The miners have refused to work until the man joins the organization or is dismissed.

RAILROADERS WANT
NEW WAGE SCHEDULE

Conductors and Brakemen to Present Demands.

Reading, Pa., Jan. 30.—It is learned here that the conductors and brakemen of all the eastern railroads are about presenting a new schedule of wages, and it is probable that the committee will be heard some day next week.
A prominent railroad official stated that he believed that the wage question of the firemen will ultimately be settled by arbitration. He declared that he could see no other way to settle the strike.
The strike vote now being taken among the firemen on the Reading and other railroads east of the Mississippi river it is expected will be finished by Saturday, Feb. 1.
The general managers' committee, of which Elisha Lee is chairman, will meet President W. S. Carter, of the Firemen's Brotherhood, in New York city, Tuesday, Feb. 11.

DOGS IN INAUGURAL PARADE

Finely Bred Foxhounds to Have a Section All Their Own.
Washington, Jan. 30.—Dogs of high degree are to participate in festive attention upon the induction into office of President-elect Woodrow Wilson next March.
Finely bred, splendidly trained, keen-nosed foxhounds are going to have a section of the parade all their own," says an announcement from the inaugural committee.
"The finest pack of hounds in all the world," is the description given of the canine group which Dr. Lester Jones, of Culpepper, Va., is assembling to parade ahead of a mounted brass band that will escort hunt club riders from the president-elect's native state.

Suffragists Plan Trip to 'Frisco.
New York, Jan. 30.—It was said on good authority that woman suffragists of this city are to undertake a horse back ride to San Francisco, that two women are already pledged to go, that others will join them and that the party will set forth in the early spring as soon as the highways of the east are fit for steady travel.

To Quiz Rockefeller on Feb. 6.
Washington, Jan. 30.—After a conference between Chairman Pujo, of the house, and John D. Garver, of New York, attorney for William G. Rockefeller, it has been decided that the examination of Mr. Rockefeller will take place at his residence on Jekyll Island, off the Georgia coast, on Feb. 6.

STEEL CASE RESTS TODAY

Gary to Be First Witness For Defense In Suit to Dissolve Trust.
New York, Jan. 30.—The taking of testimony on behalf of the government in the suit to dissolve the United States Steel corporation will end this afternoon.
There will be an adjournment of from six to eight weeks and then the defense will start in with the evidence which they hope will convince the federal court that it has not been conducted in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.
E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors and also of the finance committee, will be the first witness for the defense. It was believed that Judge Gary's term on the witness stand will take nearly a week, for he plans to tell a narrative that begins at the time he first went into the steel business when a lawyer in Chicago.
He will describe the Andrew Carnegie policy and its effect, not only on business generally, but on labor, on wages and the general prosperity of the districts affected, and he will take up the steel corporation from its inception.

BIG PHONE PROBE
IS NOW ORDERED

Commerce Commission to Investigate Bell System.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The interstate commerce commission issued the formal order for the inquiry into the affairs of the American Telephone and Telegraph company (the Bell system).
The investigation recently was transferred to the commission from the department of justice.
The commission says that information has been obtained showing that this company and other companies are guilty of unlawful discrimination and of charging unreasonable rates.
No date has been fixed for a hearing. Inquiries are to be made in all sections of the country, the purpose being to ascertain the relationship of the Bell companies to their subsidiary concerns and the discriminations, if any, against the independent telephone companies.

GOMPERS GIVES WARNING

Labor Leader Denies Compulsory Arbitration as Strike Cure.
New York, Jan. 30.—Compulsory arbitration was denounced by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a speech before the annual meeting of the National Civic Federation.
Mr. Gompers declared that the workers never would submit to arbitration such as that proposed by bills now before the New York legislature.
"I agree with you as to the desirability of preventing a strike," he said, "but don't imagine you are going to escape them by attempting to make perfectly natural activities unlawful. The attempt to get away from strikes by the methods proposed is simply the attempt to compress steam or power in a too limited space. You may do that for a while, but you will have an explosion."
"You may make the stoppage of work illegal, but you won't stop the assertion of the right of workers to stop working."

Urges Use of the Rod.

New York, Jan. 30.—An instrument that would improve the New York public schools, says Professor Frank M. McMurray, of the Columbia Teachers' college, in a report to an investigating committee, is the rod. Professor McMurray urged the re-adoption of corporal punishment, which is now forbidden.
Felix Weingartner Marries.

Dies While at Prayer.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—While kneeling in prayer in her pew at the Holy Name Cathedral at mass, Mrs. Kate Corby sank to the floor dead.

Will Get Cent More an Hour.

BULGARS TO END ARMISTICE

Army is Ordered to Terminate
Truce at Once.

TURKS TO MAKE OFFERS

Fresh Peace Proposals Are Expected in the Ottoman Answer to the Powers.

Vienna, Jan. 30.—A dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, says:

"In accordance with the decision of the government, army headquarters have been ordered to terminate the armistice today."

Breaks Off Peace Parley.

London, Jan. 30.—The peace negotiations, which reached a deadlock over the cession of Adrianople on Jan. 6, finally were broken by a note which the plenipotentiaries of the Balkan allies presented to Rechad Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation.

Notwithstanding this rupture, there are still optimists in the diplomatic world who hope a resumption of the war may yet be averted, either by fresh proposals that Turkey is reported to be including in the note she will deliver to the powers or through the fall of Adrianople before activities can be begun again at the Tchatalja lines.

A majority of the Balkan delegates refuse to admit the likelihood of either contingency, believing that the life of the Young Turk government depends upon the resumption of the war, even though the allies were willing to postpone the conflict. They are of the opinion that the present failure of diplomacy is, at the worst, only an interlude, however, for they will leave four representatives in London to undertake the settlement anew.

"The plenipotentiaries of the allied Balkan states, having since the suspension of the work of the peace conference awaited in vain for three weeks the reply of the Ottoman plenipotentiaries to their last demands, and events which have occurred in Constantinople appearing to have destroyed hope of arriving at the conclusion of peace, are to their great regret obliged to declare that the peace negotiations commenced in London on Dec. 16 last are broken off."

The note, it will be observed, does not denounce the armistice. This will devolve on the governments of the Balkan states when they consider the moment opportune.

The plan of the allied governments so far as the plenipotentiaries are informed is to concentrate their forces on Adrianople. They believe that a few days' bombardment by the big siege batteries, which surround Adrianople, will bring about its capitulation.

The Balkan representatives declare that all reports that Rumania would aid Bulgaria against Turkey are unfounded, and they add that if Rumania should take advantage of the opportunity to gain her territorial claims by force while the Bulgarian army is engaged with Turkey, Bulgaria would let her occupy the territory she demands.

As soon as the Bulgarian army disposed of the Turks the Bulgars would turn their attention to the Rumanians and attempt to make them pay dearly for this racial disloyalty, which the Bulgarians consider would be treason.

The allies expect that a preliminary treaty of peace will be signed in Adrianople by the victorious Bulgarian and Serbian generals, and this will be embodied in the treaty which will be concluded in London, for which each delegation is leaving one representative in London to await the reopening of the conference.

$10,861 For Dead Mail.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The United States is $10,861 richer through the carelessness of persons who neglected to place return addresses on mail. The annual "dead letter sale" netted that sum. An unmounted diamond of more than three carats went for $350.

Gives $60 Each to 500 Employees.

New York, Jan. 30.—The Corn Exchange bank made gifts of $60 each to its 500 employees on the occasion of its sixtieth anniversary. The total of the gifts was $30,000. On its fiftieth anniversary a gift of $50 was made to each employee.

West Virginia For Income Tax.

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 30.—By a unanimous vote the senate ratified the income tax amendment to the federal constitution. Two years ago the house passed and the senate rejected it.

LITTLESTOWN ROUTE 2

Littlestown Route 2—Mrs. Charles Eckenrode and Mrs. Eugene Spalding are spending a week in Thurmont and Emmitsburg, visiting relatives and friends.

Allen Eckenrode is on the sick list. Edward Bachman lost two colts by death last week.

The Cumberland Valley Telephone Company linemen are busy clearing their wires along the Gettysburg pike by trimming and cutting down trees.

Carpenters last week repaired the roof on St. John's church.

St. John's Sunday school ordered fifty more new Coronation hymn books.

A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Boose on Saturday night, January 25. The evening was very pleasantly spent by playing games, while the older folks enjoyed a social chat. Later in the evening the guests present were invited to the dining room where a table was laden with the delicacies of the season.

GROUND HOG DAY

Weather-Wise will Watch Time Honored Superstition.

Next Sunday will be ground-hog day, and if the animal comes out of his lair, of what you may call it, and sees his shadow he will return and for a long period we will have the real thing in cold weather. Of late years, however, the ground-hog has missed his guess several times, and he is not considered as reliable a weather prophet as he used to be, but all the same the day will be watched, and the oldest resident if he thinks the ground-hog has seen his shadow, will make all sorts of predictions and regard the coal pile with much apprehension.

A Legacy.

While in a battle an accommodating young man noticed a crippled soldier who seemed to be in great misery. The cripple said that he was wounded in the leg, and the young man immediately threw him across his shoulder and started for the doctors in the rear of the army. While on his way a cannon ball came along unnoticed by him and took off the cripple's head. When he reached his destination he was asked why he was carrying a corpse. He looked very much surprised when he noticed the headless body and said: "Well, I'll be hanged! He told me it was his leg!"—National Monthly.

Booking So-and-so.

Herbert J. Meyer, the booking agent, received a telegram from a Louisville theatrical manager that read: "Is Joe So-and-so in New York? How is his act? Book him if O. K." Meyer replied: "So-and-so not in New York. Understand his act is stupid and mediocre." Presently this telegram came from the Louisville manager: "Cut out So-and-so. If Stupid and Mediocre good act book them week Sept. 9."—Saturday Evening Post.
